CONSTANTINOPLE IS NOW OCCUPIED BY ARMED ALLIED FORCES

Several Killed in Clash With Turks When they Resisted Occupation

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 16.—(By The Associated Press).—Constantinople was occupied this morning by allied forces under General Sir George F. Milne of the British army. This long looked for military demonstration by the allies against Turkey was carried out with only one untoward happening, a serious clash at the war office, where the Turks resisted the allied troops.

An exchange of shots resulted in which several Punjabi of the British East Indian forces and a few of the Turks were killed.

The excitement caused by the occupation quieted down before darkness which brought absolute calm.

The landing of the forces of occupation was carried out under the guns of the formidable allied fleet anchored in the Bosphorous. The British dreadnaught Benbow was moored at Galata Quay her guns trained upon Stamboul. Another man of war faced the arsenal in the golden horn while all the other warships in the Bosphorous were standing by with their decks cleared for action. Except in the instance stated however, there was no resistance. The population, in fact showed little alarm, nor was there any sign of panic except in one section of Stamboul, as the commanders of the allied troops brought their forces ashore.

These forces included 4,000 bluejackets and marines from the British warships and contingents from the forces of all the allies represented here.

Comprehensive military and naval plans had been made for carrying out the allied measures and precautionary steps taken. Last night a number of Turks and other persons regarded as possible disturbers of the peace were arrested including the commander of the tenth Turkish division. The dead walls of Constantinople were placarded with a proclamation by Major General Henry F. M. Wilson, of the British troops declaring that anyone committing any act that threatened the safety of the allied forces would be tried by court martial and sentenced to death or such other penalty as the court might fix.

The proclamation was eagerly scanned by curious crowds in all sections of the city, which after the landing took place wandered around the streets in a dazed manner, apparently unable to understand exactly what had happened.

The flutter that occurred in Stamboul as the troops marched in was on the part of the shopkeepers near the war office, where the clash occurred. They closed their shops in their first fright, but speedily re-opened them.

The allies are declared to believe their measures have provided amply for the maintenance of security and order in Contantinople and cosider it questionable whether even the socalled nationalist forces in Anatolia are in a position to attempt anything serious.

Allied Statement.

The allied high commissioner here has issued a statement declaring that the allies have no attention of destroying the authority of the sultan but wish to strengthen his power. It also says the allies will adhere to their intention not to deprive the Turks of Constantinople, but that they may be compelled to modify their decision of massacres and disorders continue.

The allies have occupied the ministries of war and navy and assumed control of the posts telegraphs and telephones, which have been temporarily suspended. Shipping also has been suspended.

Turkish resistance to the terms of the peace treaty which has been framed by the peace conference and continuation of the massacres of Armenians have caused the allies to put strong military and naval forces into Constantinople.

The Turks were informed some time ago that the treaty would be stiffened appreciably against them if the killing of Armenians was not stopped. Reports of further anti-Armenian outbreaks and hostile acts against the allies by Turkish troops, largely those under control of the Nationalist leader Mustapha Kemal Pasha, however, caused the allied premiers to consider some drastic step. The allied commanders in Constantinople were consulted and it was stated action would be taken upon the receipt of advices from these officials.

GOVERNOR LOWDEN SECURES THE SUPPORT OF VIRGINIA G. O. P.

Four Delegates at Large Pledged to Illinois Executive After Stormy Fight

ROANOKE, Va., March 17.—In one of the stormiest scenes that ever attended a political gathering in the state, Virginia Republicans in convention here tonight elected four delegates at large and four alternates to the national convention in Chicago and instructed them to support Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois for the presidential nomination. The opposition fought for uninstructed delegates.

Support of Henry W. Anderson of Richmond, for vice-president also was instructed the delegation receiving the instructions for both men by a vote of 314 to 194. A motion which precipitated the fight was offered asking for instruction in favor of Lowden. A storm of protest immediately followed. Several speakers who attempted to second the motion were drowned out by cries and cat calls.

When order had been restored Delegate Roop, declaring against an instructed delegation said he attended the national convention in 1908 as an instructed delegate and he "knew of the evils of being pledged for a man, who has not the following of the people. Delegate Summers at this juncture jumped to his feet and exclaimed:

"I rise to say that the men in this convention who are advocating an uninstructed delegation are 'jingling' Wood money in their breeches at this moment."

Summers brought a howl of protest from the faction for uninstructed delegates. A vote finally was reached shortly before midnight. Following the election of delegates an address by Representative Rodenburg of Illinois was heard. The keynote of his speech was "Americanism" in which he scored the Democratic administration for its many failures.

Will Hays, national chairman was the principal speaker at the convention today.

"I believe that the business men are coming over to the Republican party because of the present administration," said Mr. Hays, "and because they want some of the burdens lifted from their shoulders."

Mr. Hays made bitter criticism of President Wilson's administration declaring the president had a "one track mind and a side track cabinet." He referred to Bainbridge Colby, nominated for secretary of state as "not a diplomat, but a door mat."

The platform adopted advocated passage of the peace treaty with reservations, reduction of taxes, creation of a national budget system, maintenance of a small standing army with a citizens' reserve and equal suffrage and opposed loans to Europe.

North Dakota Returns.

Fargo, N. D., March 17.—Returns from yesterday's president preference election were still too indefinite tonight to indicate the outcome of the fight for delegates to the national conventions waged in the Republican and Democratic primaries between groups of candidates endorsed by the nonpartisan league and those opposing the league.

Only a few cities had reported tonight, 24 hours after the polls closed. Ransom county had the most complete report available tonight—18 out of 32 precincts giving the league candidate for Republican national committeeman 380 and the anti-league candidate 359.

U. S. WARNS BOLIVIA NOT TO DISTURB PEACE OF SOUTH AMERICA

Two Notes Sent as Result of Anti-Peruvian Manifestations at La-Paz

WASHINGTON, March 17. (By The Associated Press)—Insistent representations to Bolivia not to disturb the peace of South America have been made by the American government as a result of the anti-Peruvian manifestations at LaPaz. In connection with the communications it was stated that Peru has sought the good offices of the United States to prevent hostilities. Two notes have been sent and a third is ready to go forward unless a reply to the others is received soon.

Officials view the situation as serious and the representations made by the state department were described as "urgent".

Dispatches to the Peruvian embassy today said events in Bolivia resulted from the influence of the Chilean government and the activity of Chilean agents. It is known that this view also is held in other diplomatic and in some official circles here. Embassy officials expressed the belief that there was an effort to force Peru into a war against its former ally in the war against Chile in the eighties out of which grew the Arica-Tacna dispute.

The Peruvians charge that General Montes XX a candidate for the presidency of Bolivia who is reported to be leaving the anti-Peruvian manifestations is being supported by Chile and is being supplied with arms and ammunition from that country.

The exact situation in Bolivia is somewhat obscured, owing to the rigid censorship. Reports reaching Peru that General Montes was mobilizing Bolivian reserves caused deep concern.

Peru and Bolivia are members of the league of nations and if they sever diplomatic relations, the crisis thus provoked would, under the articles of the league covenant be such as to bring the dispute to the official cognizance of the council of the league. Some diplomats considered such an eventuality not at all unlikely.

Should Peru and Bolivia fail to submit the dispute to the league, the council might be expected to take action on its own initiative.

It was pointed out however, that the dispute would not necessarily have to be referred to the league; that by mutual agreement the two countries could ask the good offices of a third power in arbitration.

Should the league council finally intervene it would not be the first time that Latin-American differences had been submitted to European arbitration The recent boundary dispute between Colombia and Venezuela was referred to Switzerland for adjustment and before that the King of Spain was called upon to settle a similar dispute between Honduras and Nicaragua.

Differences between the United States and Chile growing out of the mining claims in the later country was referred to King George of England at the time Philander C. Knox was secretary of state.

BULLETIN

BERLIN, March 17.—(By The Associated Press.)—The resignation of Chancellor Kapp and his chief officials is confirmed by the following official announcement:

"General Provisional Director Kapp has retired with the object of bringng about internal peace. General von Luettwitz has retired for similar reasons.

"The vice-chancellor in the name of the imperial president has accepted the resignations and has entrusted Major General von Zecht with the provisional conduct of affairs as commander-in-chief."

BULLETIN

BERLIN, March 17.—(By The Associated Press.)—Wolfgang Kapp has fled Berlin leaving the chancellery in an automobile at 6 o'clock this evening.

It is stated that the communists are constructing barricades at many places in the northern and northeastern sections of the city.

The leaders of the general strike have issued a proclamation saying: "The general strike of the railway men has been completely successful and therefore it is suspended forthwith."

BERLIN, March 17.—(By The Associated Press).—After holding the reins of power less than five days, Dr. Wolfgang Kapp the self-appointed chancellor and dictator, has retired from office and control. He resigned today and an official communication explained that the chancellor considered his mission fulfilled when the old government decided to meet the most essential demands addressed to it. He was also moved to this action by the extreme necessity of the Fatherland, which demanded union against the dangers of Bolshevism.

The official communique announcing the resignation of chancellor Kapp endeavors to give a patriotic aspect to his withdrawal. It says:

"The Bauer government having voluntarily decided to fulfill the most essential political demands addressed to it, the rejection of which on Saturday led to the establishment of the Kapp government, chancellor Kapp considers his mission fulfilled and retires, resigning the executive power again into the hands of the military commander-in-chief.

In this he is moved by the conviction of the extreme necessity of the fatherland which demands solid union of all against the annihilating dangers of Bolshevism.

The real circumstances of Kapp's retirement are still shrouded in mystery. An important factor undoubtedly is found in the deliberations of the undersecretaries and imperial council yesterday which Major General von Luettwitz attended. The views of this conference were that both Kapp and von Luettwitz withdraw in order to terminate an intolerable position.

Von Luettwitz agreed, but when he returned to the chancellery he was persuaded to change his mind and to retain office. To him has been delegated the executive power by the former revolutionary chancellor and it is difficult to say what will happen now that von Luettwitz remains the military dictator at Berlin.

It is reported however, that Gustav Noske, minister of defense in the Ebert government is coming here tonight and von Luettwitz perhaps will transfer his now found authority to him. Altho the general strike dealt the Berlin government a mortal blow the decisive fact is that Kapp and his supporters have no political prestige their government being built only on machine guns.

The chief of the press bureau warned the correspondents against showing themselves in the streets as a communist revolt was expectedly hourly. That any kind of compromise is out of the question now is undoubted. President Ebert is strongly entrenched at Stuttgart, where, according to semi-official advices, the council of the empire met today and unanimously approved the old government and strongly condemned the military coup at Berlin.

Frightened Berliners last night were asking: "The white or red terror! "Which" This was in consequence of an official announcement that the reds were planning a rising and calling upon the people to save the country from Bolshevism.

Fear Bloodshed.

Government officials said to The Associated Press:

"We fear bloodshed tonight; it is difficult for us to hold the troops back. In preparation for the expected rising officials camped in their offices all night. When the correspondent left the chancellery at nightfall into the darkening Wilhelmstrasse soldiers were bringing huge boxes of food and cases of wine. Berliners generally scurried to their homes apprehensively seeking refuge and locking their doors.

Nothwithstanding Dr. Kapp's resignation Berlin seems destined to have troubleous times. An influential member of the government talking with the correspondent Tuesday insisted upon the urgency of suppressing the strike movement and communist opposition. He added:

"Time is on the side of communists, and every hour we let slip weakens our position. We may expect great events between now and tomorrow."

The tieup of the city continued today and there is no evidence of the breaking down of the strike. So far as is known no fresh supplies of food have been received and prices are jumping. The striking water plant employes released a sufficient amount to flush the sewers to prevent the outbreak of disease, but little is available for drinking purposes.

SHOPMEN FAIL TO SETTLE DIFFERENCES

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., March 17.—Chicago and Alton shopmen at a mass meeting this morning failed to settle their trouble with the management and adjourned to meet again tonight at a session from which the public will be excluded. The matters pertaining to better drinking water at the shops were amicably adjusted yesterday, but the question now in controversy is over the retention of C. H. Seidel, as superintendent of motive power. The conservative element at the meeting this morning, favored a return to work and the shopmen's committee made a report to that effect but a motion made to go back never got to a vote. A leader of the radicals made an impassioned speech and the meeting broke up without action being taken.

LITTLE HEADWAY IS MADE ON PEACE PACT IN SENATE WEDNESDAY

Declaratory Reservation Voted Down With Aid of Irreconcilables

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The Republican irreconcilables, combining with the Democrats overturned on the senate floor today the plan of Republican leaders to attach to the peace treaty a general declaration of American policy toward future European wars.

The declaratory reservation which would pledge the United States to regard "with grave concern" any threat of Europe's peace or freedom was voted down 55 to 34 after the irreconcilables had trial in vain to amend it.

Disposition of the reservation was regarded as clearing up the last doubtful issue of the treaty fight, and leaders immediately made plans to bring on ratification by Friday. By unanimous consent it was agreed to limit speeches on all other pending reservations to fifteen minutes. About a dozen reservations remain to be voted on but it generally is conceded that none of them will be adopted. As the ratification controversy neared a conclusion, William Jennings Bryan began a series of conferences with Democratic senators throwing the weight of his influence against the advice of President Wilson that administration senate forces vote against ratification with the Republican reservations. Mr. Bryan is understood to have told his friends in the senate to take the best ratification they could get, but there was no evidence tonight that he had materially weakened the Democratic forces standing out against the Republican program.

Action on the declaratory reservation was reported after the senate had extricated itself with some difficulty from the debate started yesterday on the Irish question. Two propositions intended to aid Irish independence were laid aside by votes of more than two to one.

The first proposal by Senator Shields, Democrat, Tennessee, was offered as an amendment to a pending reservation on Egypt, which was tabled with all its proposed amendments 54 to 21. The subject immediately was revived however, in a reservation introduced by Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri, which was also laid on the table, 46 to 21.

Debate on the reservation to declare a European policy was brief. Senator Lenroot, Republican, Wisconsin, advocating it as a means of showing the nations good faith toward its recent allies and Senator Williams, Democrat, Mississippi, denouncing it as a stupendous piece of humor, which meant nothing and would result in nothing.

In addition to the declaratory reservation and the two relating to Ireland, the senate acted during the day on only two reservations. One by Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, withholding asset to the British protectorate over Egypt was rejected 51 to 21 and one by Senator Owen, Oklahoma, declaring the armistice terms still binding was beaten 55 to 12.

On the declaratory reservation Senators Townsend, Michigan, and Cummins, Iowa, voted for adoption and Senator Kenyon, Iowa, voted against.

Herbert Hoover's memorandum to President Wilson opposing American representation on all of the commissions under the peace treaty was read into the congressional record by Senator Borah who declared it is "infinitely a stronger indictment against this program than it has been able for an irreconcilable to make."

Senator Borah in reading the memorandum added that in view of events which have transpired since the signing of the peace treaty, Mr. Hoover's statement amounts almost to a prophecy.

The Idaho senator also read a statement published by William J. Bryan in the Commoner in 1915, declaring the United States could not go into European politics without losing its leadership in world affairs and becoming a party to a military alliance.

DELEGATES PLEDGE FOR GEN. WOOD

St. Paul, Minn., March 17.—Delegates from the Ramsey county convention in St. Paul will go to the National convention at Chicago, instructed to vote for Major General Leonard Wood, "as long as he is a candidate."

Two uninstructed delegates were elected from the Hennepin county convention in Minneapolis, despite a desperate fight between the Wood faction and supporters of Senator Hiram W. Johnson.

At the Minneapolis meeting an attempt made to have the delegates instructed for Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California, failed. Eight other district conventions are to be held Friday. County conventions thruout the state today for the most part named uninstructed delegates to attend the state convention in St. Paul on Saturday, when four delegates at large will be chosen for the national convention.

HOLLAND REINFORCES GUARD OVER FORMER GERMAN EMPEROR

Armed Guards Patrol Roads Around Palace Night and Day

AMERONGEN, March 17, (By The Associated Press) — Reinforcement of the Dutch guard at von Bentinck Castle, which since the middle ages has been protected by moats and drawbridges has made the former German emperor's refuge a veritable prison fortress capable of defene even in the unexpected event of an attack by raiders desiring to free the exile. Constables and military police patrol the roads with loaded rifles night and day.

To the right of the main entrance is a small building in rest reinforcements. Here sentries are on guard. Beside this main gateway a distance of 130 yards is another gate barring inner driveway to the drawbridge. More sentries are stationed here. Still further on at yet another gate there is also a guard. Then turning to the right, a driveway leads to the terrace on which the castle stands. Police patrol this terrace. At the rear of the castle is a garden, then a moat and then a private pathway on the dike and this is constantly patrolled. Beyond the dike is a meadow land crossed by ditches and hedges and in the meadow are patrols particularly warned to guard against the landing of airplanes there. Only the Beutinck family and the former emperor's few servants have permission to enter the castle.

The guards are not permitted to put down their rifles for a minute. When motor cars occupied by members of the Bentinck family or their employes start to leave the castle they are halted at the gate and searched by police inspectors.

The nervousness of former Emperor William continues as he follows the news of the varying fortunes of the Kapp adventure. He sits most of the time in an odd posture on chairs in his apartment, straddling each chair, grasping its back and rocking it to and fro.

SUBDUING "WILDCAT" STRIKES EXPENSIVE

Treasurer of Illinois Miners Makes Report Before Convention Assembled at Peoria.

Peoria, Ill., March 17.—The cost of subduing the "wildcat" strike last August, of the miners in the Belleville, Springfield and Peoria districts was made this afternoon when state Secretary-Treasurer Walter Nesbit, made his report to the miner delegates assembled in convention here. The state officer bitterly scored the insurgent element of the mners who "camouflaged themselves under the banner of democracy and free speech" while spreading reports that the funds of the state organization were being illegally spent.

"They advocated disobedience to our constitution and violation of the written terms of contract. We spent $27,299.59 to defray the expenses of subduing this unwarranted and illegal strike. I believe we would have been justified in spending every dollar we have rather than allow the organization to fall into the hands of those who were leadin gthe rebellion."

President Farrington referred to the strike last August as "a movement that was in positive defiance of every law and principle of our union."

At the close of his report President Farrington announced that Governor Lowden has accepted the invitation extended to him to speak before the convention. He set no date.

SIMS CONTINUES HIS ATTACKS UPON NAVY DEPARTMENT

Declares it Insisted on Directing all Operations From Washington

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Again centering his fire at the navy department on charges that it insisted on directing all war operations from Washington, Rear-Admiral Sims told the senate investigating committee today his urgent appeals for an adequate staff in London were ignored until November, 1917. Admiral Benson, chief of operations reached London during that month Admiral Sims said and quickly convinced himself of the necessity for establishing a real advanced base headquarters abroad with an adequate staff to make possible full cooperation with the admiralty and coordinating all activities with the allies.

"I had been recommending such action for five months," said Admiral Sims. After Admiral Benson had reported, the department changed its attitude, he continued and a cable to Benson November 17, 1917, said a decision had been reached that it would be advantageous to have permanent war staff in England to work with the plans department of the British admiralty.

"If this meets your approval additional officials will be sent to augment those already in England who are fitted for this work it said.

Admiral Benson then asked that Captain F. H. Schofield and Commander Knox be ordered to report to Admiral Sims and Admiral Jellicoe for such duty and this was done at once, Admiral Sims testified, while his own recommendations for nearly six months for the same action had been disregarded.

"The soundness of the policy was again demonstrated by the fact that the department adopted it," said Admiral Sims. "And thruout the remainder of the war continued to recognize, tho sometimes grudgingly, the necessity for what had been continually recommended and which should have ben obvious from the very first."

There was continued delay on vitally important recommendations because officials in Washington did not consider that sufficient information had been sent from London, Admiral Sims said. In many cases, he added, the necessity for secrecy or his lack of assistants prevented full reports. He read a cable from the department declaring that it is essential that the department be promptly and fully informed of all operations of our vessels, acting with the allied naval forces. On his reply that all important operations would be reported the department renewed its demand for detailed reports, he said.

"The department seemed disinclined to take any action or indorse any recommendations unless the fullest and most complete explanation would be made and this was extremely difficulty if indeed not impossible."

The admiral said it took four months to maintain a docking system for battleships abroad because of the department's insistence on details when he could have made all the arrangements in ten minutes conversation in Washington with the proper officers, the admiral declared adding that arrangements were finally completed only after the armistice.

Admiral Sims was expected to conclude tomorrow his long statement begun more than a week ago. Cross-examination probably will not be taken up before Saturady or possibly next week.

THE NON-FARMER TYPE

The new Secretary of Agriculture, E. T. Meredith, starts in just like any other Wilsonian cabinet member. He has had a press agent write a story for the papers about him in which he is heralded as "a new type of man" in the office he now occupies. And, of course, he takes a crack at Congress and at his predecessors in office. For instance, his press agent says:

"The Department of Agriculture has gone in for two types of Secretary. The type which has predominated through most of its existence has grown copious crops of whiskers, has harked back to the good old days of whittling sticks at the corner grocery, has harbored a pair of brogans in its closet, reminiscent of earlier times. * * * The second type, has been from the college classrooms * * * But here comes a new type. Secretary Meredith has none of the earmarks of the farmer."

The first secretary of Agriculture was Jerry Rusk, one of the sturdy pioneers of the Northwest, a real farmer, but a man of affairs as well, who had been chosen governor of his state by the people, instead of being defeated for office as was Mr. Meredith. The second was J. Sterling Morton, a former governor of Iowa, and originator of Arbor Day, a genuine farmer and also a man of successful business experience. The third was another former governor and congressman from Iowa, "Tama Jim" Wilson. He was probably the most practical and useful incumbent the office ever had, and under his administration the Department of Agriculture assumed its present large place in the national economy. It remained for President Wilson to choose two non-farmers for Secretary of Agriculture, just as he has chosen a non-business man for Secretary of Commerce. This story put out in Mr. Meredith's behalf about his predecessors being smelly persons from the cross roads dry goods boxes makes a very good newpaper story, but it is sadly lacking in the essential element of truth.

However, the statement with which this piece of propaganda concludes will remain undisputed. The press agent says: "Secretary Meredith is a trained advertising man." He can do his own Creeling.

PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARIES

Some of the absurdities and insufficiencies of popular presidential primaries as instituted under the laws of some states are already being revealed says the Globe. Intended to promote the free expression of the people as to their choice for the party nominee, their practical effect is largely to restrict it. Under such laws it becomes necessary for a presidential candidate to file an application for a place on the ticket. Some states permit others to do this for him, while a few states go to the very opposite extreme and not only require a personal filing, but that he actually make speeches in the state during the primary campaign. Anything so lowering to the dignity of the office of President of the United States will not appeal to a large number of men of the type most desirable for the office. The result of these various laws is that this year we have some candidates in the primaries in some states and others in other states, while good men who would command a large following are left off the ballot entirely in various states. Electors who are anxious to declare their preference for a particular man are debarred from doing so by the fact that he is not named on the ballot, and must either resort to the practice of writing in his name or voting for somebody they do not want or remaining away from the polls entirely. The returns from the Minnesota primaries, in which enough voters wrote or pasted in the name of Herbert Hoover to give him a larger vote than some of the regular candidates, reveals the handicap under which his supporters worked while the very small total vote cast shows that great numbers remained away from the polls.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

GEN. J. A. McCLERNAND

By Ensley Moore

(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

John A. McClernand was one of the most prominent of Illinoisans, by adoption, and a great leader in the Civil war. His being Congressman from Lincoln's home gave great point to this. Few of our citizens know, probably, that he lived in Jacksonville from 1851 to 1856. Thereafter, his home was in Springfield. But he had much to do with this place.

Born in Kentucky

The future leader, as so many of ours have been, was born in Kentucky — in Breckenridge county—in 1812. His father died when the boy was but four years of age, and his mother brought him to Illinois, making her home in Gallatin county. There the boy grew to manhood, became a lawyer and later on published some newspapers; meantime serving in the Black Hawk war in 1832 as a staff officer—pretty good for a boy almost. Before the Civil war he was known as Col. McClernand. This must have been because of his Indian campaign, or because he was born in "Old Kaintuck;" and, by the way, his parents were of Scotch birth.

In the Legislature.

McClernand, like another youth of the Black Hawk war, named Lincoln, soon became one of the colons of this state, being elected in 1836, 1840 and 1842 to the House of Representatives from the Shawneetown district. That, however, did not satisfy his ambition, any more than it did Lincoln, so, in 1843 he became a

from his home district, serving until 1849 or 1851. Lincoln again sitting with him, part of the time. Then the doughty Colonel came north, to Jacksonville.

A noted man of this place then and afterwards was James Dunlap, builder and owner of the Dunlap House (or hotel as it is now called). Dunlap had also accummulated the title of Colonel somehow, altho this deponent cannot say how or when. Col. Dunlap was for years owner of the fine residence back on College Hill, now occupied by Dr. C. J. Pitner, and Dunlap's domain extended southward to, or almost to, the Brook. This tract of land embraced the handsome woods, with the fine spring, in what has since been called Strawnton, owned by Mr. Gates Strawn, whose elegant home now fronts on Mound Ave. About 1856 McClernand went to Springfield to live and was elected to Congress in 1858 and 1860.

In the War.

When the struggle for the Union began Mr. McClernand occupied no doubtful position. As, in Congress he had worked, being a life long Democrat, with Senator Stephen A. Douglas, so he almost preceded the "Little Giant" in declaring for the preservation of the Federal Union, one and undivided. Thus he, with Douglas, supported Lincoln, and no Democrats of Illinois, were ahead of them in this loyal work or stronger leaders at that time. McClernand took a brigade with him.

As Lincoln so well knew the Senator, so equally well or better, he knew his fellow townsman, and Gov. Yates also depended upon the Congressman from this district. Thus it easily came about that McClernand was authorized to raise a brigade of troops where many eminent men were only asked to raise regiments or companies, and "Mac" resigned his seat in Congress to lead the first brigade—as such—of Illinoisans into the war, soon succeeding in getting his regiments, and was in the first "batch" of Brigadiers-General that Lincoln appointed from his own state. Among these were Grant and Prentiss all of date of May 17, 1861.

But Cupid before Mars.

Gen. McClernand like many another brave soldier had been led by Cupid; and, married Miss Sarah, eldest daughter of Col. James Dunlap, here; this before the war, and they were the parents of Helen, Faye and Edward J.

Mrs. McClernand died just about the beginning of the political or military struggle ushering in the "Sixties." Gen. McClernand again surrendered to the little leader, during the war, and secured as his second wife, Miss Mineva Dunlap, another and youngest daughter of Col. Dunlap. Both weddings were in the Dunlap Hotel.

They were the parents of two daughters and a son. The family home was for years in Springfield, but of late Mrs. McClernand has resided in Peoria.

Into the War.

Col. McClernand soon raised his bridage, became a Brigadier General and camp was made for the command up in our Dunlap's woods or Strawnton. They came in August, and for some reason only about two thousand men reached here—they left for the front in September. They were hardly at Cairo, before they took a brilliant part in the sharp battle of Belmont.

Then there was a lull, during which a greater campaign was being planned and provided for, and, in quick successive Ft. Henry and Ft. Donelson fell, with Illinoisans leading. Then, as a sequence, Nashville, was ours, when another halt for preparation was made, followed by marches to the southward ending in the great battle of Shiloh, where Illinoisans were again at the front, McClernand among the most active and bravest. Then Corinth was ours—under Halleck's direction—after the Confederates had left it —and the quiet of the fall of 1862 intervened. But Vicksburg must be taken to open the river to the Gulf, and one of the leading events in the work preliminary to that end was the capture of Arkansas Post by Gen. McClernand a Major General since Donelson.

Then came the operations before the seige, and the capture of Vicksburg, in which McClernand was prominent and "Brighter thro the circling ages shine the glorious stripes and stars."

Later on Gen. McClernand was in command at Galveston, Texas, and he resigned from the army in November, 1864.

Returns to Springfield.

The General returned to Springfield and resumed his profession as a lawyer. But President Cleveland appointed him as one of the Commission governing Utah. After one of the most noted and active lives, spent largely in public place, with a history worthy of detai, did space permit, the contemporary of Douglas and Lincoln and Yates and Grant; the old man marched his last march, Sept. 20, 1900.

Another General.

Edward John, son of General John A. McClernand and Sarah his wife, born in Jacksonville, was graduated from West Point in 1870. He soon won fame and a congressional medal of honor in Indian warfare. He was in Cuba and Porto Rico during the Spanish war, and afterwards had an important command in the Philippines, becoming a Colonel of the Regular army, and was retired as a Brigadier General, by age rule, in 1912.

Rippling Rhymes

By Walt Mason

Evanescent.

I've known all kinds of grief and care that this world has in store, and I have torn my brindled hair, and walked the well known floor. And sometimes now I look behind upon the bygone years, when I, with vexed and troubled mind, shed cataracts of tears. And all the griefs look piffling now, which made my nights a frost, and dug these furrows in my brow regardless of the cost. I wonder why I used to weep, and 'neath my burden bend, and why cheap troubles spoiled my sleep for weary nights on end. I recollect some nights of pain when life was spiced with gall; but what the grief that seared my brain, I do not now recall. I recollect one evening large, when I was sorely tried, and stood upon the river's marge, and thought of suicide. I must have had a load of care, a ton or two of woe; but what it was that drove me there, I'm ding-donged if I know. And now that I am old and wise, at care I lightly glance; I know that every sorrow flies, if given half a chance. But if you take it to your breast, against your starboard lung, 'twill in your bosom make its nest, and there produce its young.

Free Yourself From The Pangs of Rheumatism

The Right Treatment Will Break Your Shackles.

You who are afflicted with Rheumatism know from experience just how excrutiating the pangs of the disease are. You know also, if you have had rheumatism for any length of time that there is no real relief to be expected from the use of liniments and lotions.

Rheumatism is a stubborn disease, and its pangs and pains cannot be wiped out as if by magic. A disease that is so full of torture and renders so many people absolutely helpless, is a deep-seated one; it is not on the surface, hence it cannot be reached by external, surface remedies.

Lotions, liniments and ointments applied to the surface may in some cases deaden the pain for the time being, but until you attack the disease at its foundation, you are making no progress toward a cure. Many forms of Rheumatism are caused by millions of tiny germs that infest the blood, and until the blood is absolutely freed of these germs, there is no real relief in sight.

In fact the longer you delay treating the disease through the blood, the further you are getting from ridding yourself from the disease. And because so many people treat the pain, and not the disease itself, is one reason why Rheumatism increases in severity year by year.

The most satisfactory remedy for Rheumatism is S. S. S., because it is one of the most thorough blood purifiers known to medical science. This fine old remedy cleanses the blood of all impurities, and is a sure antidote to the germs of Rheumatism. Being purely vegetable, without a particle of mineral or chemical in its composition, it works by eliminating and forcing out of the blood all impurities, acting as a tonic to the entire system at the same time. It has been used for more than fifty years, and scores of sufferers from Rheumatism give it unstinted praise.

S. S. S. is sold by druggists everywhere, and any of them will tell you that it is a thoroughly honest and reliable old remedy. You are invited to write our medical department for full information and advice about the treatment of your own case, for which no charge is made. The Last of the Duanes

"The Last of the Duanes" is from Zane Grey's wonderful romantic novel of love and danger, thrilling in every breathless situation, a live chapter centering in the history made by that most gallant body of men, the Texas Rangers.

"The Last of the Duanes," photographically, also is a masterpiece. The rugged scenery, the beauty of the mountain fastnesses, give fitting setting for the whirlwind action in which "Buck" Duane matches his courage and cunning first against the Rangers and later as their ally against the outlaws from whom he has rescued the girl who in the end saves him.

Try Making Your Own Cough Remedy

You can save about $2, and have a better remedy than the ready-made kind. Easily done.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co. Ft. Wayne, Ind.

PLANS FOR BASEBALL TEAM PROGRESSING

Frank Smith Says That He Can Give Fans Excellent Baseball if They Will Assist in Supporting a Team—New Park Location Secured.

Frank Smith is making plans for one of the fastest independent baseball teams Jacksonville ever had for the coming season.

He already has plans under way for a new park and a line on some strong players. However, it is going to take money to put a good team in the field. Mr. Smith believes the fans will furnish the money if they know they are going to get good baseball.

Wednesday Mr. Smith started to canvass for funds for the team. He said last night that he was greatly encouraged with the response so far made and believes the lovers of good baseball will furnish the necessary funds to put a fast team in the field.

Mr. Smith has secured ground south of Maple Grove school for the Indees new home. There is a concrete walk running within forty feet of the ground and it is in every way more desirable than the location last year.

Fred Briggs who played short for the Indees will report to Terre Haute in the Three-Eye league for a tryout. He has written to Manager Smith that if he does not make the team he will come back here and play with the Indees. It is probable that a number of fast local players will be given a chance to make the team this year.

Judging from the crowds that attended the games last summer and the brand of baseball played there should be no trouble in raising the money necessary to put a good team in the field and have a thoroly equipped park.

The Weak or the Strong One

If you see before you a strong and safe bridge leading to your goal, would you ignore it and choose some insecure and tottering structure?—

If you were offered sure aid in time of trouble would you hesitate to accept it?—

The answer is simple—you would choose what all evidence showed to be the safe way—and you would risk nothing in useless experiments.

Why then do some women risk one of their most precious possessions—their health—in trying medicines of unknown value, when everybody knows that the most successful remedy for woman's ills is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Here is more proof:

Reading, Pa.—"I had organic inflammation, pains in the side and back which were so sharp that they pulled me to my knees, and I could not walk. I had an operation and still I failed, and in the eight years I suffered I had four doctors and none helped me. My mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was then in bed, and after the first bottle I could be out of bed, then I took Vegetable Compound Tablets and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine and also used the Sanative Wash. I still take the medicine and am able now to do my own housework. My friends say, 'My! but you look well—what do you do? Who is your doctor?' and there is only one answer, 'Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines.'"—Mrs. WM. STERN, 560 Douglas Street, Reading, Pa.

Gainesville, Tex.—"For three years I suffered untold agony each month with pains in my side. I found only temporary relief in doctor's medicine or anything else I took until my husband and I saw an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I mentioned it to a neighbor and she told me she had taken it with good results, and advised me to try it. I was then in bed part of the time, and my doctor said I would have to be operated on, but we decided to try the Vegetable Compound, and I also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I am a dressmaker and am now able to go about my work, and do my housework besides. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial as I am always glad to speak a word for your medicine."—Mrs. W. M. STEPHENS, 202 Harvey St., Gainesville, Texas.

A Man to Man Policy that Wins

THE Standard Oil Company was a pioneer in the petroleum industry. From the day of its organization to the present moment the Company has put forth every effort to make and sell goods of the highest quality and always has been satisfied to work on a small profit. It has made money for its 4711 stockholders by reason of the volume of business done.

In its dealings with the men and women who make up its working organization, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has maintained a policy of fairness and liberality which has held its men and inspired them with the high ideals of service which have been the key to its prosperity.

Today the 22,000 employees are working as one man to increase production and decrease the cost of manufacture and distribution, for they know that their every effort is appreciated in terms which are substantial.

The working and living conditions of the men and women employed by the Company always have been matters of major interest to those in authority. Under the plan now in process of organization, the employees will be given an ever-increasing voice in the management of their affairs.

The spirit of fairness which animates both the Company and its employees, in their relations with one another, has again proved that all that is needed to increase production and insure industrial peace is to make it possible for the employer and employee to sit down and discuss all phases of their problems man to man.

GRACE CHURCH REVIVAL GROWING IN INTEREST

The revival services in progress at Grace M. E. church continue to grow in interest. There was an audience of good proportions in attendance last night, when the pastor, Rev. T. H. Tull, delivered a strong sermon from the text, "Am I My Brother's Keeper?" The minister emphasized the thought that we do not live to ourselves alone and that the responsibility for others is not one which can be shaken off. It was his declaration that men and women are realizing now more than ever before that they are stewards of God, and are having a clearer idea of what this stewardship involves.

A special invitation is extended to the members of other denominations to join in this series of special services at Grace church. The music is of an inspiring character and the sermons are well worth hearing.

Do you want a big oats crop this year?

Then don't run any risk. Treat your oats for smut. The Journal has received from the University of Illinois a reliaable smut treatment. Over a period of five years several treatments were experimented with by the Agricultural Experiment Station of the State University, and the one here given proved the most effective of all. The use of this University formula will save Illinois farmers thousands of dollars in the coming crop. Here it is:

1. Thoroly fan and screen the oats.
2. Mix one pint of formalin with 10 gallons of water for each 80 bushels of seed to be treated. Keep this solution covered so as to prevent the formaldehyde gas from escaping.
3. Sprinkle the solution over the oats, using one pint to each bushel, and mix thoroly.
4. Pile the oats up and cover with blankets, canvas, or sacks.
5. After two hours uncover the oats. If they have been thoroly mixed they will have absorbed the moisture so thoroly that they will be dry enough to sow at once in a broadcast seeder or drill.
6. If the oats are not seeded at once, they should be spread out in a thin layer and stirred occasionally to allow the escape of the formaldehyde gas.

This recommendation is based on five years' investigations planned to determine a simple, convenient method of treating oat for smut.

STOCKS UNCERTAIN THRUOUT DAY

(By the Associated Press)

New York, March 17.—Stocks were active and strong at the opening today, dull and uncertain during the intermediate session and higher than at any previous period in the final hour, when many substantial gains were registered.

The spirited rebound in the later trading followed word from Washington that the secretary of the treasury had advised against the imposition of a tax on stock dividends until the beginning of next year.

Equipments, motors and oils, as featuredby Baldwin Locomotive, Stutz and Mexican Petroleum, led the sturdy and vigorous advance towards the end. Baldwin gaining 13 points and Stutz 20, while some two score less prominent issues made net gains of three to ten points.

Crucible steel and general motors, which again created much unsettlement by their erratic course finished at comparatively nominal gains.

The more stable industrials and rails made relatively little headway tho strengthening at the end. Sales amounted to 1,05,000 shares. Call money was freely offered at 8¼ per cent after opening at 8 but foreign exchange was unsteady. A belated rise in liberty 3½s and the better tone of high grade rails were the features of an irregular and contracted bond market, internationals recording no matelal change.

Sales (par value) aggregated $10,875,000.

CORN MARKET CLIMBS HIGHER

(By the Associated Press)

Chicago, March 17.—Sharp upward swings in the value of corn took place today simultaneously with reports of bubonic plague in Argentina and of export buying of foodstuffs at New York. The corn market closed strong 1½c to 2½c net higher with May $1.57¼ to 1.57½ and July $1.50⅝ to 1.50¾. In oats the finish ranged from ¼c decline to 1⅝c advance. Provisions scored gains of 1½ to 3c.

Corn began to ascend as soon as the market opened, but heavy selling to realize profits led to a decided break before the market went soaring in earnest. Nearly all of the news which developed was adverse to the bears.

Independent strength shown by oats, however, helped the sharp rally that followed and so too did persistent gossip of big purchasing to supply trans-Atlantic needs emphasized by reported difficulties in Argentina Eastern shipping demand lifted cash oats here to 87½c, the top most figures on record.

Firmness of provisions was ascribed to enhanced values of hogs and grain.

BURGLARS MAKE HAUL AT BOSTON GROCERY

Secure Several Hundred Dollars In Early Morning Robbery—Other Business Houses Entered

Burglars, who entered the Boston Grocery store at 000 East College avenue, early Wednesday morning robbed the safe of several hundred dollars. The store was robbed a short time ago, but at that time only a small sum was secured.

Burglars also entered the oyster house of S. O. Barr and attempted to gain entrance to the cigar store of C. M. Sharpe early Wednesday morning.

At the Barr establishment a large glass was removed from a door in the rear of the building. Nothing was missing and it is believed that the thieves were frightened away before they had a chance to get some change in the cash register. The robbers were not successful in getting into the Sharpe cigar store as there was a heavy iron bar across the door secured with a padlock.

The robbery at the Boston store was committed some time after 2:30 o'clock Wednesday morning as the night police visited the store at that hour and everything was all right. Entrance was gained here by forcing the lock on the front door. From appearances the robbers opened the safe by working the combination.

Mr. Boston had several hundred dollars in the safe but was unable to give the exact amount. Some of the money was in pocketbooks and one of these was found on the Chicago & Alton tracks. There also were some Liberty bonds in the safe which were overlooked.

The robberies at the Barr and Sharpe establishments must have been committed some time about 4 o'clock.

Employes of the establishments named upon opening up for business Wednesday morning discovered the robberies. The police were immediately notified.

Chief of Police Kiloran and the day force started to work on the cases. B. F. Ross of Alsey was communicated with by telephone and had his bloodhounds here within two hours afterward.

The animals were taken to the Boston store and took up the trail and followed it to the Burlington yards where it was lost. They also were taken to the business section and started on the trail from the Barr store. This trail lead out around Diamond Grove cemetery and back to the Burlington tracks. Another trail taken by the dogs led in the vicinity of the Jacksonville Packing company but none of them resulted in anything definite.

Late Wednesday afternoon the police picked up men who had been in the city for several days. One of them, C. L. Barnes was taken before Justice Opperman, where he signed a jury waiver. He was sentenced to jail on the charge of vagrancy for ten days in order to hold him while further investigation is being made.

The police rounded up a number of suspicious characters. It is probable that Chief Kiloran, will employ drastic measures with transients and others without means of support and either compel them to leave town or go to jail.

The KOPPERL INSURANCE AGENCY is prepared to take care of all loss by burglary or otherwise in "THE OLD HARTFORD," East State and Square. Both phones.

RECORDER'S OFFICE IS A BUSY PLACE

Circuit Clerk C. W. Boston and his assistants have put in busy hours since the last days of February and they are still several days behind with the work of recording. It is the belief, however, that the end of this month will find the work of the recorder's office brought up to date. There is more work attached to the recording of an instrument than most people realize and when documents filed as was the case there is such an avalanche of during the first days of the present month, several weeks are required to catch up with the work.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR CHARLES B. GRAFF

Many Gathered to Honor Memory of Prominent Citizen—Interment Took Place at Ashland.

The funeral of the late Charles B. Graff was held Thursday. At 12:30 o'clock a large company of sorrowing relatives and friends gathered at the family home on Sandusky street. Rev. M. L. Pontius, pastor of the Central Christian church in which Mr. Graff had long held membership, was in charge of the services. Mr. Pontius took as his text Revelations 21-4: "And there shall be no death there, neither sorrow nor crying, nor pain any more."

In the brief address Mr. Pontius made appropriate reference to the generous and helpful spirit that had characized Mr. Graff's life. Then as he defined life merely as a transition, he offered words of comfort for the sorrowing hearts. Mr. Pontius said in part:

A GENEROUS LIFE

"It is our mission to comfort the sorrowing and pay a tribute of respect to him whom we have known as Charles B. Graff. Mr. Graff will be missed in the Central Christian church. Until sickness prevented he was in his place in the Lord's house on the Lord's day. He was very active in business and the political life of Jacksonville and Morgan county. Mr. Graff was very generous. Many in this town and county have received his benefactions. To many a man he was a friend in need. Until his recent illness he was always genial and optimistic. To wife, daughter, mother, sisters and brothers we bring the fruition of our Christian friendship which is Christian sympathy.

"Our hearts turn to God's word. In the spirit filled word there is comfort and hope. In sorrow we see through our tears that which we cannot see at other times. The man on his knees in fervent prayer to God can see more than the man who does not pray and who stands on his tip toes. Through crystal tears we catch glimpses of Heaven. John tells us that in Heaven there will be no pain, sorrow or death. These have to do with a material existence and are associated with the flesh. Heaven is a spiritual place, the eternal home of the soul. We may not be able to locate Heaven or describe it, but "We know that if the earthly house of our tabernacle be disolved we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens."

THE SOUL'S TRANSITION

"If we knew life as Jesus exemplified we would not fear death. Death would not be the King of Terrors, but the soul's minister. Then we would sorrow only because we regret the temporary seperation from our loved ones. For the Christian there is no death. That which we call death is simply the removal of the soul from its house of clay into the house not made with hands eternal in the Heavens. A careful, prayerful study of the Bible will create Christian faith and Christian faith is the hand with which man grasps the truth of immortality.

"There is no death: the stars go down
To rise upon some fairer shore.
And bright in Heaven's jeweled crown
They shine for evermore.

There is no death! An angel form
Walks o'er the earth with silent tread;
He bears our best loved friends away,
And then we call them dead.

He leaves our hearts all desolate,
He plucks our fairest, sweetest flowers.
Transplanted into bliss, they now
Adorn immortal bowers."

BURIAL AT ASHLAND

There were beautiful flowers in profusion and they were cared for by Mrs. Charles Bennett, Mrs. John Gardner, Mrs. S. Earl Purviines, Mrs. Byron Graff, Mrs. Henry C. Goebel, Misses Lella Lohman and Blanche Lohman.

It had been the intention for the funeral party to travel to Ashland by automobiles but the dounpour of rain made this impracticable and the remains were taken to Ashland over the Chicago & Alton road. The bearers were Messrs. M. F. Dunlap, Andrew Russel, H. J. Rodgers, Otto F. Buffe, W. G. Goebel and Edgar Martin. At the cemetery a brief service was held, the bearers there being Frank Graff, Byron Graff, Charles Fisher, L. O. Butler, William Goff and Reuel Crum.

In honor of Mr. Graff's memory and because of his connection with business and public affairs the Ayers National Bank was closed from 12 to 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and the court house and the city hall were closed from 12 to 1:30.

ELKS MEMBERSHIP ROLL GROWS RAPIDLY

Lodge Here Will Soon Be One of the Largest in the State—Order Has Grown Remarkably Since the War.

The membership campaign for the Jacksonville Elks lodge is expected to bring the roster total to one thousand members by May 1st, according to Exalted Ruler, T. C. MacVicar, recently re-elected to that office. Mr. MacVicar says that there no longer is any doubt that the lodge here will rank as one of the largest in the state by next fall or by the time that will be formally set for the dedication of the new home.

"Elkdom all over the country has increased by 100 percent since the armistice. I am informed in a letter recently received from the grand exalted ruler's office," Mr. MacVicar said. "This shows that the membership has jumped from a little over 500,000 to well over one million. There have been 260 new lodges organized and 921 lodges have increased their membership by more than 100 per cent."

It will be recalled that the local lodge initiated more than 127 candidates last December, a number have been taken in since that date and about 75 have been balloted upon and are waiting initiation. It is expected that campaign committees will be appointed to thoroughly canvas this territory for it is believed that there is plenty of good material to bring the membership to well over the thousand mark set and that all required is to bring the matter to the attention of prospects.

It is known that the minimum initiation fee which may be charged has been raised throughout the entire grand lodge domain, and that the dispensation which Jacksonville at present is enjoying will expire with the last meeting in the old home.

LEONARD WOOD
For President

This is one time your vote means something

NO primary in the history of Illinois has meant more to all the people of the United States than the Presidential Preference Primary this year.

The names of two men are before you, and you are asked to make your choice between them — which of them you think should be President of the United States.

YOU are asked to do this, not by your vote for delegates, but by recording your judgment so that the country may know what you think. Stripped of all else, this is the meaning of the Illinois Primary this time, so far as the country is concerned.

Now stop and think what manner of man should have your voice in such a time as this —perhaps the most trying time in our history —the world seething with unrest, suspicion, bitterness—a time of danger. Is it not true that we need a man in whose steadiness of purpose, in whose steadfastness of mind, and in whose courage we can trust?

Do we want a politician merely — a man of compromise — or do we want a man as much like Lincoln and Roosevelt as we can get? A man fearless and honest; a man whose character stands out as a strong, earnest, understandable American. A man who has done things. A man who is unafraid. A man who knows what he wants to do and then does it.

If you agree with this — then you will give your voice and vote for Leonard Wood because you know what kind of man he is and what he has done. He is more than a soldier — he is an executive; an administrator; an organizer and a statesman. He has proved his constructive ability. As Governor-General of Cuba and later in the Philippines, he directed the acts of hundreds of thousands of human beings, made them happy and orderly, built model schools, established new hospitals, abolished profiteering, developed industry, rehabilitated agriculture, established justice in the courts, and out of chaos developed in a few years one of the contented, prosperous nations of the world. No less a man could have done these things.

There are other good men and true, but there's no other man before the people who measures up to the need of the time as does Leonard Wood. He is a Republican. He is a man of the people and for the people—all the people.

This is once, at least, that your voice at the primary will be heeded. This is one time your vote means something. Do not be misled; do not be afraid to speak your mind.

You've Invested Money in Your Auto

Like every other investment, whether money, time or labor, you want the biggest dividend obtainable.

Auto dividends are measured by the amount of service the auto gives and the economy with which it does it.

If your car is laid up half the time by reason of hit or miss repairing and you waste the other half in urging it to run, the returns on your investment have not been very great.

If you expect to get proper returns on the money laid up in your car you must consider the man who proposes to take care of your service wants. Does he know what he is doing or is he merely experimenting.

TAKE NO CHANCES. But make it your business to patronize the place that employs nothing but experts.

Facts Worthy of Your Consideration

Excerpts from Address of President A. H. Kenniebrew, to the Illinois Medical Association, June 15, 1918—

"As physicians you must realize the fact that RESULTS OF YOUR WORK tell the people more about your skill and ability than your sheepskin or social standing.

"The sick man desires health, the dying man pleads for extension of life—Now if you can deliver the goods—if you can diagnose the case more accurately, remove the cause more successfully, the fool will forget his folly, the sensible man his prejudices, and place their fate in your care.

"It is a pitiful confession of intellectual inferiority on the part of any physician, white or black, to appeal to the sympathies or prejudices of his race for professional preferment.

"PROVE that you possess SUPERIOR ABILITY and SKILL and regardless of your race, I assure you that the human thirst for that WHICH IS BEST will shower you with recognition and crowd the pathway to your office. REMEMBER that you can no more HOLD A COMPETENT MAN DOWN than you can an INCOMPETENT ONE UP."

ARE PREPARING FOR NEAR EAST DRIVE

Mass Meeting Was Held at David Prince Building Thursday Night —Miss Burgess Made Address on Work in Persia.

An impromptu mass meeting was held last night at the David Prince school in preparation for the Armenian drive which will be begun next Monday.

Earl Spink, county chairman of the Armenian Near East Relief, presided. He introduced Principal Hopkins of the high school who led the audience in a community sing. Dr. Black spoke briefly paying a high tribute to the nurses and telling of the condition of the people in the Near East.

The chairman then introduced Miss Burgess. Miss Burgess is a native of Bement, Illinois, and is home on a visit after nearly five years in the Persian field. She went into this work direct from Jacksonville where she had been a nurse in the Norbury Sanitarium.

Miss Burgess told of the starving people in Armenia and of the work the various missions to these people were doing. She asked in her talk why it was that there had been no massacres in Roumania since 1917, and answered it herself by saying that there were no Christians left in the country.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

FURTHER STRENGTH SHOWN BY STOCKS

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, March 18.—Influenced mainly by the hope that congress would modify or perhaps repeal tax laws relating to excess profits today's stock market registered many substantial additions to yesterday's gains.
Greatest strength was displayed by shares of companies which are expected to follow the example of Crucible Steel in declaring liberal stock dividends out of surplus earnings.
Extreme advances in shares of this class extended from three to twenty points.
The rise was further stimulated by reports that the railroad companies contemplate awarding large contracts for much needed equipment and general reconstruction of the lines. Other favorable factors included a plentiful supply of call money at 6 per cent. Foreign exchange also manifested greater firmness.
Features of the day which was the broadest and most active of any session since the reversal of the early weeks of the year encompassed motors, steels, railway equipments, shippings, leathers and textiles. The strength of Liberty 3½s attracted attention and gave rise to rumors that estates and corporations were again accumulating that issue. Standard rails and industrial bonds were firm to strong but did not keep pace with the rise of stocks.
International recorded slight changes. Total sales, (par value) aggregated $12,650,000.

CORN RECOVERS BULLISH SENTIMENT

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, March 18.—New record prices for the season resulted in the corn market today from continuance of bullish sentiment. The altitude of values, however, led to nervousness and the close was unsettled, 1½c net lower to a like advance with May $1.56⅝ and July $1.49⅞ to $1.50. Oats lost ¼c to 3c. In provisions there were gains from 25c to $1.25.
Confidence by the bulls in the corn market was based chiefly on the smallness of the supply here and on the readiness with which current receipts were absorbed. Notice was also taken of assertions of the failure of campaigns to reduce living costs. The ensuing returns in the corn market, tho, encountered more and more profit-taking sales wit ha flattening out of demand.
Oats commanded the unexampled price of $1.00 a bushel for No. 2 white but then receded owing to import duty rumors.
Provisions were strong with hogs and corn. Temporarily a few uneasy shorts bid pork up $2 a barrel.

An instrument was placed on record yesterday showing that members of the citizens' water committee have on behalf of the city of Jacksonville entered into an agreement with William Holly with reference to certain land overflowed by Mauvaisterre lake. This land is on the west side of the C. & A. railroad, fronting on Hardin avenue. When the lake is high water backs up thru a C. & A. culvert and overflows the piece of land that Mr. Holly is using for garden purposes. By the payment of $500 the city secures the perpetual right to overflow the land in question.

NEW ALTON TIME CARD IS RUMORED

Westbound Hummer May Run Thru Jacksonville — Afternoon Train to St. Louis to be Restored.

While no official information has been received, a new time card on the Chicago & Alton is a matter of rumor. It is said that this card will go into effect in the course of the next two or three weeks and that the Jacksonville train service will be greatly benefited.

According to these stories the Hummer to Kansas City which now leaves Chicago at 6 p. m., running thru Springfield and over the cut-off to Roodhouse, will be routed thru Jacksonville, and thus the service which prevailed before the building of the cut-off restored.

The announcement of such a change would be received with great pleasure by Jacksonville people, who would then have the opportunity of spending all of the business day in Chicago and reach home by midnight. If this change is made, it is probable that a Kansas City sleeper from Springfield will be sent to Roodhouse on the "plug" passenger train which now leaves Springfield for Roodhouse at 7:10 p. m.

When the new card goes into effect it is also understood that the afternoon train to St. Louis will be restored. When the fuel shortage came on as the result of the strike this afternoon train with others was taken off by the Chicago & Alton. Then when the new card was put into effect it was without this afternoon train. Not only Jacksonville people but those resident in Woodson, Murrayville, Manchester and other points south are hoping very earnestly that this afternoon train will be restored.

Jacksonville chapter, No. 3, R. A. M., will hold a special convocation at 5 o'clock this evening. WORK. SUPPER at 6 o'clock. Visiting companions welcome.

"DOWN IN DIXIE" WELL STAGED PLAY

"Down in Dixie" as presented by young people of Sacred Heart parish in Marquette hall at Franklin Wednesday night was one of the most successful amateur performances ever given there. The hall was crowded and in fact many people were unable to gain admission. Dennis Whalen was active in the management of the production which was successful in every way. The patronage was so liberal that the receipts amounted to more than $200. The characters were well portrayed and it was evident that members of the cast had been very diligent in rehearsing this comedy drama of Civil war days.

There were vocal solos by Miss Blanche Harney and James Sevier and violin solos by Miss Tessie Flynn, with Miss Grace Armstrong as pianist.

The cast included Morgan Ryan, James Seaver, Martin Carroll, Dennis Whalen, Harry Walsh, Harold Ryan, Wm. Reed, John Whalen, Miss Calista Newell, Miss Alice Ross, Mrs. Dennis Whalen, Miss Hallie Ryan.
